NEW ARMS CONFERENCE PLANS MAY BE FUTILE

FRANCE SHOWS LITTLE FAVOR FOR THE PARLEY

DEPARTMENTAL OFFICIALS SURPRISED BY THE PARIS REPORT

FRANCE NOT AT PRESENT INTERESTED IN COOLIDGE PROPOSAL

(By United Press)
Washington, March 31.—There will be no Washington arms conference this year until France can be induced to change her hostile attitude as expressed in official report from Paris today.

The departmental officials were surprised by the Paris report that Ambassador Daeschner has been instructed to notify this government officially that France is not at present interested in President Coolidge's proposal.

"We have requested no opinion of France and can make no further comment," Secretary of State Kellogg said.

France's unfriendliness to the proposal has caused much uneasiness in official circles here for two months as exclusively reported by the United Press, but officials have hoped until the last minute that the French foreign office could be converted to the desirability of another conference.

Since France at the first Washington conference blocked the limitation of cruisers, submarines and auxiliary naval crafts which is the primary purpose of the proposed conference, unofficial negotiations with Paris for further arms limitation have been an uphill task. Italy, though in favor of the conference, feels that she must share France's sea power in the Mediterranean and will probably be forced by French opposition to withdraw her subject of further naval limitation.

It is believed that Great Britain and Japan backing the proposal will not prevent it from falling to the ground. No naval conference is possible without the full participation of the five major sea powers, it is agreed here.

FRENCH POSITION IS ENUNCIATED

Paris, March 31.—The French foreign office has instructed Ambassador Emile Daeschner to inform the United States government officially that France is not at present interested in a new disarmament conference.

The attitude is assumed in Quai D'orsai that France has limited her cruisers and other war implements as far as possible under the present circumstances and provision for her security must be settled before further land and air disarmament can be discussed.

These statements were made upon the official authority of the foreign office this afternoon.

Officials who announced the position of France were careful to explain that we do not wish to be placed in the attitude of making any definite "de Marché." No effort, however, is being made to hide the emphatic stand.

Daeschner is expected to inform Secretary of State Kellogg that the French proposition is based entirely on the situation at present.

It is stated officially that France and England are in accord to negotiate a security pact with Germany before actual entry of Germany into the League of Nations. The pact may even be signed before Germany's entry, but it might become ineffective or subject to annulment if Germany fails to enter the League upon conditions which already have been laid down. A provision setting forth these conditions might be included in the agreement, according to this source.

VAUCLAIN GOES WHERE THERE IS NO DRY LAW

Philadelphia, March 31.—Samuel Vauclain, Baldwin locomotive works head, bet $10,000 he would observe the dry laws in the United States for a year.

The bet expires May 18. He sailed for Bermuda yesterday.

Immediate Trial of Shepherd is Now Demanded

PONTOON BRIDGE COLLAPSED; MEN AND HORSES DROWN

(By United Press)
Berlin, Germany, March 31.—Between seven and 14 soldiers were drowned today when a pontoon bridge across the Weser river in Westphalia collapsed. Cavalry, artillery and infantry were crowded on the bridge engaged in maneuvers. Horses, men and equipment were dropped into the river in a great struggling mass.

Men and animals fought together to free themselves and swim ashore, putting the stream into a muddy foam. First reports of the dead ran from 50 to 100, but later advices reduced this number and it was believed the list of drowned would not exceed 14 and might be as low as seven.

HOT LEGISLATIVE BATTLE BREWS IN STATE SENATE

GOVERNMENT REORGANIZATION MEASURE HAS AMENDMENTS

SO MANY TAGGED ON AS TO DESTROY MUCH OF ITS EFFECTIVENESS

(By United Press)
St. Paul, March 31.—The session's hottest legislative battle began today over the state government reorganization bill when Senator A. J. Rockne cracked a $30,000,000 whip. Despite this he went down in an overwhelming defeat in the first test vote to determine whether the bill will pass as originally drafted and as favored by Governor Theodore Christianson or will be "amended" in such a way that much of its effectiveness will be lost.

Shortly after noon, the senate by a vote of 63 to 1 adopted Senator N. O. Pederson's amendment which would keep the Rural Credit bureau as a separate bureau instead of subordinating it to another state department.

The bill as drafted by the interim committee appointed for the last legislature was brought up this morning in the senate as special orders. Eleven amendments passed by the civil administration committee were introduced with it.

Certain they would be adopted, the original bill would go to the governor after passage by the senate and house, unrecognizable to a great extent and with its vital elements removed.

Of the proposed amendments, the two most important are those providing that the Rural Credit bureau shall remain a separate body and that the Board of Control be subordinated to another department.

Both these amendments are strenuously opposed by Senator Rockne.

PASS 6 WORKMEN'S COMPENSATION BILLS

St. Paul, March 31.—The house of the legislature today passed six workmen's compensation bills.

There was no opposition to them, labor and employers having agreed to their provisions.

This is the first time such bills have passed without opposition and a resulting fight on the floor of the legislature.

One of the measures provides that groups of employes in any factory or business house may organize credit unions to be incorporated and operate under the supervision of the state banking department. These unions would be allowed to loan money and charge up to one per cent a month interest.

The other measures were chiefly on matters of procedure in the payment of compensation and were recommended by the state industrial commission.

Rules were suspended while the house passed the bill closing the muskrat season during April. The so-called contractors' bill was killed

FRAZIER STARTS ACTION AGAINST U. S. FOR $10,000

WAR VETERAN FILES SUIT FOR DISABILITY INSURANCE
CLAIM

CASE IS EXPECTED TO COME UP
IN MAY FEDERAL COURT
TERM

St. Paul, March 31.—Arthur Frazier has filed suit against the government to obtain his war insurance claim.

Frazier is suing for $10,000, claiming permanent and total disability from injuries received during the war. He was insured for $10,000.

The veterans bureau has refused to grant the claim, asserting he is not Frazier, but Arthur Lopez.

An effort will be made to have the Frazier insurance case brought into federal court as soon as possible. It is expected to come up during the second or third week of the May federal court term in Minneapolis.

The suit was filed on the advice of Maj. Leland A. Wind, legal adviser to the veterans' bureau, in order to expedite settlement of the Frazier case.

Maj. Wind and Lafayette French, Jr., United States district attorney, will represent the government in the case.

SANITY OF GIRL NOW QUESTIONED

JURY SELECTED TO EXAMINE
DOROTHY ELLINGSON, 16
YEAR SLAYER

(By United Press)
San Francisco, March 31.—Selection of the jury to determine whether Dorothy Ellingson, 16-year-old matricide, is sane, started in Superior Court here today.

It marked the turn the case had taken when Dorothy was pronounced "medically insane" by experts yesterday. The insanity trial was immediately ordered to determine whether her "medical insanity" which was called "psychosis," is also legal insanity.

If Dorothy's lawyers win—that is, if they prove their client insane—the best she hopes for is a term in an asylum for the insane.

If they fail to prove the girl unbalanced, she must go through another trial on the charge of murder—two trials instead of one.

RESCUERS TOIL TO SAVE COMRADES

40 MINERS TRAPPED IN MONTAGUE COLLIERY, ENGLISH MINE

(By United Press)
New Castle, Eng., March 31.—Rescuers toiled heroically throughout the night in an effort to save the 38 or 40 miners who were trapped in the Montague colliery at Scottwood yesterday when it was suddenly flooded.

Hope of rescue virtually was abandoned at dawn when it was learned the water line in the mine was rising steadily and gas was developing. Thousands of persons, many of them relatives of the entombed men, remained at the mine head and several wives collapsed in agony.

for the third time in successive sessions today. The measure would require all municipalities to publish their estimates and asks for bids on all work costing more than $7,500. It was killed by a vote of 69 to 35.

The house added to tomorrow's special orders a bill providing for a women's dormitory at the University of Minnesota.

3 KILLED, 3 HURT AS AUTOMOBILE STRIKES A TREE

(By United Press)
Newark, N. J., March 31.—Three persons were killed and three others probably fatally hurt early today when an automobile crashed into a tree in Branchbrook park. Among the injured was a Cleveland woman.

BILL TO REDUCE TAXES BY A HALF BILLION DRAFTED

SENATOR KING OF UTAH IS THE AUTHOR OF THE MEASURE

DEMOCRATS WILLING TO AID REPUBLICANS IN TAX CUT

(By United Press)
Washington, March 31.—A bill to reduce taxes $500,000,000 is being drafted by Senator King of Utah, democrat, for introduction when congress convenes next winter, to tackle the tax question.

The measure would reduce taxes more than the Mellon plan, King said, announcing the bill today. Under its provisions, the aggregate maximum tax, including normal and surtax would not exceed 25 per cent.

Democrats are more than willing to meet republicans half way in arranging for further tax cuts next session, King said, and are ready to make a non-partisan matter of the tax question.

Explaining the huge cut which the bill provides, King said it was to compel government economy by reducing available money in the treasury.

Annual government expenditures now aggregate $4,000,000,000 directly and $1,600,000,000 indirectly, King said. Characterizing this as "disgraceful" King said by cutting revenues down to $2,000,000,000 or better yet $2,750,000,000, there would be simply no money to spend except for essentials and government economy would become a fact.

The King bill abolishes all nuisance taxes, lowers the normal and surtaxes and eliminates many of the taxes on business.

OPEN WATER DUCK BLIND BILL NOW UP

COMMISSIONER GOULD CALLS IT
"WANTON SLAUGHTER"
BILL

IF MADE LAW, WOULD UNDO ALL
WORK OF GAME COM.
MISSION

(By United Press)
St. Paul, March 31.—Minnesota legislature must not pass the proposed "wholesale slaughter" bill relating to open water duck blinds.

This is the general opinion today expressed by Twin City sportsmen and conservationists following on the senate's action Monday which recommended for passage the Ahlen-Sullivan open water duck blind bill.

The bill in question would legalize the shooting of water fowl from blinds constructed anywhere within ten rods of any shore of any body of water within the state.

Jay F. Gould, state game and fish commissioner, was most emphatic in his denunciation of the bill. He characterized it as "wanton slaughter," a measure that "threatens to undo everything the state game and fish department and conservationists have accomplished for the past 15 years."

BURNING DRY MEADOW GRASS TO AID GROWTH

FARMERS SHOULD BE POSTED ON PROPER METHODS
TO BE USED

DIRECTIONAL FIRING SHOULD BE OBSERVED IN ALL CASES

(By United Press)
Cass Lake, Minn., March 31.—Methods of burning dry meadow grass in the spring to promote growth and to control fires to prevent destruction are being demonstrated by the forestry service under the direction of Ed. Marshall, supervisor of the Minnesota National Forestry division.

Settlers have been advised not to start grass fires when there is any possibility of the wind blowing the fires beyond control, Supervisor Marshall said.

With favorable places, fires may be controlled by directional firing so that buildings, fences and forests will not be damaged.

Every spring, Supervisor Marshall said, forest rangers are called upon to give demonstrations of proper handling of burning grass and slashings to eliminate attended dangers. Many such demonstrations are now in operation.

AMUNDSEN STARTS POLAR FLIGHT SOON

NORWAY, THENCE TO SPITZBERGEN

(By United Press)
Oslo, Norway, March 31.—Captain Roald Amundsen, Norwegian, left Oslo today for Trense, Norway, from which point he will go to Spitzbergen, there to start his proposed airplane flight over the North pole. Amundsen before leaving said he would attempt the flight late in April if weather permitted. He revealed that he hopes to find land or solid, smooth ice on the North pole and if he does, he will land there.

Otherwise, he proposes to make such observations around the pole as conditions permit, flying at a low altitude if possible, and to land on the nearest available spot. He expected to fly from Spitzbergen to the pole, a distance of approximately 700 miles, in one day. It is estimated by his pilots to be an eight-hour flight.

YOUTHFUL BANDIT IS SPANKED BY VICTIM

Minneapolis, March 31.—Minneapolis claims to have the only bandit spanker in the country.

Early Sunday a youthful bandit accosted H. D. Glover, 55, 225 W. 15th st., near the latter's home, with the casual remark, "stick 'em up."

Mr. Glover "stuck up" his cane and brought it down with disconcerting force on the bandit's head.

Then, police say, he took the youth over his knee, and applied the cane to the conventional place where father applies the razor strap.

When released, the bad bandit ran away a few feet, picked up a pebble, threw it at the bandit spanker, and then made record time getting away.

LARGEST COOPERATIVE MARKETING BODY

St. Paul, March 31.—The largest cooperative marketing organization in the world was given permission to operate in Minnesota today.

The Grain Marketing company, with headquarters in Chicago, was granted a permit to sell $140,000 worth of common and preferred stock in this state by the state securities commission.

The company was formed about a year ago combining some of the largest grain companies in the country.

FOUNDER OF THE YELLOWSTONE TRAIL BADLY INJURED

(By United Press)
Ipswich, S. D., March 31.—J. W. Parmley, founder of the Yellowstone Trail and member of the South Dakota board of regents, suffered a broken thigh and wrist and other injuries in an automobile accident near here late yesterday. The steering gear of his car broke as it was approaching a bridge and the car plunged through the guard-rail and down a steep embankment. He was enroute to Aberdeen to deliver an address. Parmley has been under an anesthetic since the accident.

STATE'S STAR WITNESS UP IN CHAPMAN CASE

WALTER SHEAN UNDER CROSS
EXAMINATION AT TODAY'S
SESSION

FINALLY WILTS, ACKNOWLEDGING HE WAS ROBBERY
ACCOMPLICE

(By United Press)
Hartford, Conn., March 31.—Walter Shean, the state's star witness against Gerald Chapman, accused of murder underwent cross examination at today's session of Chapman's trial. He has named Chapman as the man who was his companion the night he robbed a department store in New Britain, Conn. It was in the robbery that Chapman is alleged to have killed Policeman James Skelly of New Britain.

Shean at the outset of his cross examination reiterated his innocence of shooting Skelly and was apparently ready again to describe how Chapman is alleged to have fired the shots. Shean admitted Post Office Inspector Brown saw him in the Hartford jail after Skelly was killed and that he told Brown, "I was watching Chapman and was going to turn him over to police."

Standing with one foot on the floor and the other on a chair, Attorney Groehle shot question after question at the witness. Shean, who yesterday claimed he had been duped and knew nothing of the New Britain robbery, finally wilted and indirectly acknowledged that he was an accomplice in the robbery with Chapman, saying "I made up my mind I would get all I could out of the robbery."

STANDARD OIL CO. PLANS EXTENSIONS

PAN-AMERICAN PETROLEUM AND TRANSPORT COMPANY
SOUGHT

(By United Press)
New York, March 31.—Negotiations which have been going forward for some time for the purchase of controlling interest in the Pan-American Petroleum and Transport Company by the Standard Oil Company of Indiana and its associates are expected to be closed not later than tomorrow. The basis of transfer of the majority stock from E. L. Doheny's great property to the Standard is not revealed. Quotations on the stocks of both companies ranged higher at the opening today.

DERANGED WOMAN RUNS AMUCK IN HER RESIDENCE

(By United Press)
Somerville, N. J., March 31.—Mrs. Catherine Sheridan today shot and killed her 17-year-old daughter Helen, perhaps mortally wounded her 14-year-old son James, and seriously injured herself in an attempt at suicide. She was believed to have been deranged.

CHARGED WITH MURDER OF HIS WEALTHY WARD

DR. FAIMAN SAYS HE SECURED
TYPHOID GERMS FROM HEALTH DEPT.

THEN TURNED THEM OVER TO
SHEPHERD TO KILL
McCLINTOCK

(By United Press)
Chicago, March 31.—Immediate trial of William D. Shepherd on the charge that he murdered his wealthy ward, Billy McClintock, was demanded today by State's Attorney Robert E. Crowe at the reopening of the defense fight for bail.

William Scott Stewart, chief defense attorney, asked Judge Jacob Hopkins to place Dr. Henry Bunderson, city health commissioner on the stand.

"I can show through Dr. Bunderson that it was impossible for Shepherd or anyone else to obtain typhoid fever germs from the health department," Stewart said.

Dr. C. C. Faiman, chief state witness, insists that he secured typhoid fever germs from the health department and that he turned them over to Shepherd for the avowed purpose of killing McClintock.

Crowe objected to placing Dr. Bunderson on the stand.

"I refuse to have this case tried by piece-meal," Crowe shouted. "Let's have this trial go on at once before the defense can poison the minds of the people. I demand that a jury be summoned and the trial start immediately."

Stewart refused to acquiesce to the demand and arguments continued on the question of hearing Dr. Bunderson. Stewart declared, "he would blow the case out of the water" if Judge Hopkins would allow the witness to testify.

W. S. LYCAN DIED AT CROOKSTON

WAS MANY YEARS MEMBER OF
THE STATE FAIR
BOARD

(By United Press)
St. Paul, March 31.—W. S. Lycan, 65, prominent business man, died at his home in Crookston last night.

Lycan was a member of the Minnesota State Fair Board and a member of the board of directors of the 10,000 Lakes Association. For 35 years he was proprietor of the Hotel Crookston at Crookston, Minn. He is survived by his widow and a brother, Frank Lycan, proprietor of two Bemidji hotels.

CONFESSES SHOOTING AFTER GRILLING

(By United Press)
Huntington, W. Va., March 31.—Burt Stanley, 18, who told police yesterday the thrilling story of how two men killed each other in a duel over the beauty of their respective sweethearts today confessed that he did the shooting himself.

Stanley, after hours of grilling, admitted killing Edward McAllister, 35, and Thomas Click, 20, in an argument over a liquor deal.

According to Sheriff Delbert Clark, Stanley claims to have fired in self-defense. A deputy has been sent to Princess county, Kentucky, to arrest another man said to be involved in the shooting.

St. Cloud, March 31.—An explosion in the boiler room of the Nelson pool hall here last night started a fire which gutted the one-story building, the loss being estimated at $20,000. Two cattle cars were destroyed by a blaze in the Great Northern yards last night.

NEW ARMS CONFERENCE PLANS MAY BE FUTILE

FRANCE SHOWS LITTLE FAVOR FOR THE PARLEY

FRANCE NOT AT PRESENT IN-

PROPOSAL

(By United Press)
Washington, March 31.—There will be no Washington arms conference this year until France can be induced to change her hostile attitude as expressed in official report from Paris today.

The departmental officials were surprised by the Paris report that Ambassador Daeschner has been instructed to notify this government officially that France is not at present interested in President Coolidge's proposal.

"We have requested no opinion of France and can make no further comment," Secretary of State Kellogg said.

France's unfriendliness to the proposal has caused much uneasiness in official circles here for two months as exclusively reported by the United Press, but officials have hoped until the last minute that the French foreign office could be converted to the desirability of another conference.

Since France at the first Washington conference blocked the limitation of cruisers, submarines and auxiliary naval crafts which is the primary purpose of the proposed conference, unofficial negotiations with Paris for further arms limitation have been an uphill task. Italy, though in favor of the conference, feels that she must share France's sea power in the Mediterranean and will probably be forced by French opposition to withdraw her subject of further naval limitation.

It is believed that Great Britain and Japan backing the proposal will not prevent it from failing to the ground. No naval conference is possible without the full participation of the five major sea powers, it is agreed here.

FRENCH POSITION IS ENUNCIATED

Paris, March 31.—The French foreign office has instructed Ambassador Emile Daeschner to inform the United States government officially that France is not at present interested in a new disarmament conference.

The attitude is assumed in Quai D'Orsay that France has limited her cruisers and other war implements as far as possible under the present circumstances and provision for her security must be settled before further land and air disarmament can be discussed.

These statements were made upon the official authority of the foreign office this afternoon.

Officials who announced the position of France were careful to explain that we do not wish to be placed in the attitude of making any definite "de Marché." No effort, however, is being made to hide the emphatic stand.

Daeschner is expected to inform Secretary of State Kellogg that the French proposition is based entirely on the situation at present.

It is stated officially that France and England are in accord to negotiate a security pact with Germany before actual entry of Germany into the League of Nations. The pact may even be signed before Germany's entry, but it might become ineffective or subject to annulment if Germany fails to enter the League upon conditions which already have been laid down. A provision setting forth these conditions might be included in the agreement, according to this source.

VAUCLAIN GOES WHERE THERE IS NO DRY LAW

CLAIM

CASE IS EXPECTED TO COME UP
IN MAY FEDERAL COURT
TERM

St. Paul, March 31.—Arthur Frazier has filed suit against the government to obtain his war insurance claim.

Frazier is suing for $10,000, claiming permanent and total disability from injuries received during the war. He was insured for $10,000.

The veterans bureau has refused to grant the claim, asserting he is not Frazier, but Arthur Lopez.

An effort will be made to have the Frazier insurance case brought into federal court as soon as possible. It is expected to come up during the second or third week of the May federal court term in Minneapolis.

The suit was filed on the advice of Maj. Leland A. Wind, legal adviser to the veterans' bureau, in order to expedite settlement of the Frazier case.

Maj. Wind and Lafayette French, Jr., United States district attorney, will represent the government in the case.

LARGEST COOPERATIVE MARKETING BODY

St. Paul, March 31.—The largest co-operative marketing organization in the world was given permission to operate in Minnesota today.

The Grain Marketing company, with headquarters in Chicago, was granted a permit to sell $140,000 worth of common and preferred stock in this state by the state securities commission.

The company was formed about a year ago combining some of the largest grain companies in the country.

FOUNDER OF THE YELLOWSTONE TRAIL BADLY INJURED

(By United Press)
Ipswich, S. D., March 31.—J. W. Parmley, founder of the Yellowstone Trail and member of the South Dakota board of regents, suffered a broken thigh and wrist and other injuries in an automobile accident near here late yesterday. The steering gear of his car broke as it was approaching a bridge and the car plunged through the guard-rail and down a steep embankment. He was enroute to Aberdeen to deliver an address. Parmley has been under an anesthetic since the accident.

STATE'S STAR WITNESS UP IN CHAPMAN CASE

WALTER SHEAN UNDER CROSS
EXAMINATION AT TODAY'S
SESSION

FINALLY WILTS, ACKNOWLEDG-
ING HE WAS ROBBERY
ACCOMPLICE

(By United Press)
Hartford, Conn., March 31.—Walter Shean, the state's star witness against Gerald Chapman, accused of murder underwent cross examination at today's session of Chapman's trial. He has named Chapman as the man who was his companion the night he robbed a department store in New Britain, Conn. It was in the robbery that Chapman is alleged to have killed Policeman James Skelly of New Britain.

Shean at the outset of his cross examination reiterated his innocence of shooting Skelly and was apparently ready again to describe how Chapman is alleged to have fired the shots.

Shean admitted Post Office Inspector Brown saw him in the Hartford jail after Skelly was killed and that he told Brown, "I was watching Chapman and was going to turn him over to police."

Standing with one foot on the floor and the other on a chair, Attorney Grochle shot question after question at the witness. Shean, who yesterday claimed he had been duped and knew nothing of the New Britain robbery, finally wilted and indirectly acknowledged that he was an accomplice in the robbery with Chapman, saying "I made up my mind I would get all I could out of the robbery."

STANDARD OIL CO. PLANS EXTENSIONS

TRANSPORT COMPANY
SOUGHT

(By United Press)
New York, March 31.—Negotiations which have been going forward for some time for the purchase of controlling interest in the Pan-American Petroleum and Transport Company by the Standard Oil Company of Indiana and its associates are expected to be closed not later than tomorrow. The basis of transfer of the majority stock from E. L. Doheny's great property to the Standard is not revealed. Quotations on the stocks of both companies ranged higher at the opening today.

DERANGED WOMAN RUNS AMUCK IN HER RESIDENCE

(By United Press)
Somerville, N. J., March 31.—Mrs. Catherine Sheridan today shot and killed her 17-year-old daughter Helen, perhaps mortally wounded her 14-year-old son James, and seriously injured herself in an attempt at suicide. She was believed to have been deranged.

CHARGED WITH MURDER OF HIS WEALTHY WARD

DR. FAIMAN SAYS HE SECURED
TYPHOID GERMS FROM HEALTH DEPT.

THEN TURNED THEM OVER TO
SHEPHERD TO KILL
MCCLINTOCK

(By United Press)
Chicago, March 31.—Immediate trial of William D. Shepherd on the charge that he murdered his wealthy ward, Billy McClintock, was demanded today by State's Attorney Robert E. Crowe at the reopening of the defense fight for bail.

William Scott Stewart, chief defense attorney, asked Judge Jacob Hopkins to place Dr. Henry Bunderson, city health commissioner on the stand.

"I can show through Dr. Bunderson that it was impossible for Shepherd or anyone else to obtain typhoid fever germs from the health department," Stewart said.

Dr. C. C. Faiman, chief state witness, insists that he secured typhoid fever germs from the health department and that he turned them over to Shepherd for the avowed purpose of killing McClintock.

Crowe objected to placing Dr. Bunderson on the stand. "I refuse to have this case tried by piece-meal," Crowe shouted. "Let's have this trial go on at once before the defense can poison the minds of the people. I demand that a jury be summoned and the trial start immediately."

Stewart refused to acquiesce to the demand and arguments continued on the question of hearing Dr. Bunderson. Stewart declared, "he would blow the case out of the water" if Judge Hopkins would allow the witness to testify.

W. S. LYCAN DIED AT CROOKSTON

WAS MANY YEARS MEMBER OF
THE STATE FAIR
BOARD

(By United Press)
St. Paul, March 31.—W. S. Lycan, 65, prominent business man, died at his home in Crookston last night.

Lycan was a member of the Minnesota State Fair Board and a member of the board of directors of the 10,000 Lakes Association. For 35 years he was proprietor of the Hotel Crookston at Crookston, Minn. He is survived by his widow and a brother, Frank Lycan, proprietor of two Bemidji hotels.

CONFESSES SHOOTING AFTER GRILLING

(By United Press)
Huntington, W. Va., March 31.—Burt Stanley, 18, who told police yesterday the thrilling story of how two men killed each other in a duel over the beauty of their respective sweethearts today confessed that he did the shooting himself.

Stanley, after hours of grilling, admitted killing Edward McAllister, 35, and Thomas Click, 20, in an argument over a liquor deal.

According to Sheriff Delbert Clark, Stanley claims to have fired in self-defense. A deputy has been sent to Princess county, Kentucky, to arrest another man said to be involved in the shooting.

St. Cloud, March 31.—An explosion in the boiler room of the Nelson pool hall here last night started a fire which gutted the one-story building, the loss being estimated at $20,000. Two cattle cars were destroyed by a blaze in the Great Northern yards last night.

NEW NAVAL STATIONS PLANNED

ENGLAND MAY BUILD NEAR DARWIN, AUSTRALIA, AND SINGAPORE

London, March 31.—Hints that London plans to build a naval station near Darwin, Australia, in addition to the much discussed base at Singapore, were reported in an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Darwin today.

Rear Admiral T. H. Thompson, first naval member of the Australian naval board, who has just returned from Singapore, was quoted as hinting such a plan in an address at a civic reception in Darwin. The Daily Herald, commenting on the matter, said it threw an "impressive light" on the recent conference of British admirals at Singapore.

ENGLAND MAY BUILD NEAR DARWIN, AUSTRALIA, AND SINGAPORE

London, March 31.—Hints that London plans to build a naval station near Darwin, Australia, in addition to the much discussed base at Singapore, were reported in an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Darwin today.

Rear Admiral T. H. Thompson, first naval member of the Australian naval board, who has just returned from Singapore, was quoted as hinting such a plan in an address at a civic reception in Darwin. The Daily Herald, commenting on the matter, said it threw an "impressive light" on the recent conference of British admirals at Singapore.

2 GOLDEN EAGLES CYCLONE VICTIMS

(By United Press)
De Soto, Ill., March 31.—Two more victims of the cyclone which wrought destruction to this district have been found. The two latest victims are two golden eagles.

The body of one was found here buried beneath the wreckage. It measured 9 feet, 10 inches from tip of wing to tip of wing.

Another was found near Elkhartville and it measured 9 feet from tip to tip.

Both will be mounted.

And the Gods Smiled

By MARY V. BURTON

(© 1925, Western Newspaper Union.)

ELINOR HARDIN sat in her box at the opera and listened to her father prose on and on about the things prosers seem to notice most. The Cartwrights were in their box again—together. The Altons had returned from the West. Yes, the prima donna was growing stout—what a life!

Her small, high-held head on the slender throat swayed like a flower as she bent to listen to him. Her face was listless and her eyes somber and discontented. Once they flashed as she bowed to a large, important-looking man in a box opposite, who smiled complacently as he looked at her, and made some remark which turned the faces of the three men with him in her direction.

"There's Chatfield speaking from his box, Elinor, and he's coming over. I want a word with him before he gets seated in here. We'll be back in a moment," and her father disappeared through the curtains.

Elinor pressed her red lips with her white teeth, and turned sullenly from the sight of the men opposite. They were her friends—a boy who lived to smash his autos and brag about it—another who loathed on his money and posed as a man—and the other a cat's paw for Chatfield. They were the men of her world and they all acclaimed her for what they called "dragging Chatfield Morgan"—and his millions.

The curtains of the box parted and Elinor turned with indifference to greet reality in the person of the round Chatfield, when she found herself looking into a pair of keen, deep-set blue eyes, that she had never seen before. A man had seated himself at her side, and he returned her amazed stare with coolness, though the color mounted to his face.

"Miss Hardin," he said, in such a quiet, compelling voice that Elinor paused as she lifted the bunch of roses from her lap, preparatory to rising from her chair for purposes of annihilation. "If you could help a man throw a lariat at a star by letting him talk to you just ten minutes, would you?"

The question was asked her in a simple, natural manner. The keen eyes smiled ever so little and she got as far as observing that a square jaw and a clean-cut mouth went with the eyes—when something happened, and before she could help it she had smiled a response.

"What is it?" she asked, uncertainly, and her long lashes swept her cheeks; she had no intention of being betrayed into another entanglement with those gray boy-eyes.

"This! And I want to tell it quickly, for I can't stand for you to think me the boulder I seem to be—perhaps am. I am Winston Craig, have been in the city three years, and am the agent for the New York Consolidated Life. A general agent for this whole territory is to be appointed and from my record the office is mine, only they seem to feel that I am pretty young, and from a southern country town, and lack experience. The cranky special agent is here in the theater with me tonight, and I laughed and told him I thought he ought to put me up against some test in the matter of getting at people; he answered seriously—he's really a boulder—that if I could come over here and get you to talk to me through the between-acts the appointment was mine. I—"

"Oh, said Elinor, as she lifted her eyes laughingly, "I don't think I care to be the subject of a—business wager. May I ask you to leave me before I—"

"One minute more," and again he used the compelling tone, and now his eyes were grave. "It wasn't to get the job for myself that I came. I could have gone on fighting my own fight and waiting, but—about the star—there's desperate need for hurry—and you shall listen to me, for it concerns you as well as me! He bent forward and clasped the stem of one of her roses in his fingers. "Do you remember a man pulled you free of that wreck your car was in on the avenue three years ago? Didn't save your life, just helped you free your skirts. For three years I have thought about you, watched for your car, waited at theater doors, read where you went to drink tea, to dine and to dance and laugh with those others—and—" his eyes went to the box where the three men stood talking with her father. Elinor followed him and then came back to the broad, strong man beside her, whose clothes were as conventional as theirs, whose manner as perfect, but who had in his clean young face a something that dared to do, a something that called.

"And—" Again she was looking into his eyes and speaking apparently without her own volition. Again he flushed and his eyes questioned—could it have been tenderly? The color on her own cheeks matched that on his and a light dawned upon her. She was face to face with romance in a staid old world and she looked on it unafraid.

"Only this—I have been poor. There's a big salary to this job, and opportunity. I am going now—the curtain is being rung up—but I'm coming back for you and it won't be long. Then I am going to do Chatfield Morgan and all of them up into a large bunch of nothing! But I know I've got to hurry to do it—good-by," and he bent his head deferentially. His voice voiced through his words.

"No," she said, and a new note caught in her laugh, "I will be at home tomorrow at five to say good-by."

Heating Value of Peat

Peat, prepared for fuel, has about the same thermal value as the Pennsylvania anthracite now obtainable.

EFFECTIVE MEANS OF REDUCING FAT

Here is an extraordinary method of reducing weight—extraordinary because no starvation diets or violent exercises are necessary. Marmola Prescription Tablets are made exactly in accordance with the famous Marmola Prescription. They reduce you steadily and easily, with no ill effects. Procure them from your druggist at one dollar for a box or send price direct to the Marmola Company, General Motors Building, Detroit, Mich. Once you start taking these tablets and losing your fatness, you will be happy again.

Weeping Stove Pipes

Weeping stove pipes, from the joints of which a tarlike liquid leaks out, is often a difficult trouble to remedy. It is due to insufficient draft. The smoke, moving slowly through the pipes, condenses and the liquid so formed oozes out at the joints of the pipes. Sometimes having the pipes on an incline, upward to the chimney, will cause the smoke to pass along more quickly. Sometimes raising the chimney will increase the draft. Some find that a little opening in the pipe next the chimney, with a sliding cover, increases the draft up the chimney, when open, and so causes the smoke to pass out quickly. It all comes to this—increase the draft and the heat of the pipes and so cause the smoke to pass out so quickly that it cannot cool and condense in the pipes.—Family Herald.

Historic Mecca Temple

The Cariba is the temple of Mecca, said to occupy the exact spot of the tabernacle that was let down from heaven at the prayer of repentant Adam, after his wanderings of 200 years. According to tradition, it was built by Ishmael, assisted by his father, Abraham, and contains the famous "Black Stone of Mecca." The temple has been twice rebuilt within historical times, but still retains its original shape. It is in the form of a cube, 50x30 feet, and about forty feet in height. It is richly decorated, and used to be annually recovered with handsome brocaded hangings presented by the sultan of Turkey. The interior is finished in marble and silver-gilt plating, and contains beautiful silk hangings, but is devoid of objects of genuine interest.—Kansas City Star.

Cleansing Uses for Corks

Old corks can be used in many valuable ways. Spots and blemishes on windows will nearly always disappear if rubbed with a dry cork. Moistened with turpentine, it will remove marks from stone, brick, and rust spots on metal give way to cork dipped in paraffin; spots on linoleum by cork dipped in gasoline. Rust marks on pie dishes and plates will vanish if treated with a cork dipped in wet salt.

An effective foot warmer for cold winter nights may be made by cutting corks into small bits, filling a flannel bag with them, and heating for ten or fifteen minutes.—Southern Pharmaceutical Journal.

Toll of London Fogs

According to one authority, says Popular Mechanics, a single London fog may cost more lives than a pitched battle. The period of the greatest prevalence of the dense mists is in December, with the other winter months not far behind. At this season of the year the death rate from lung diseases reaches its height. The heavy, moisture-laden air aggravates such maladies, the lack of sunlight reduces physical resistance and illness frequently results from chills caused by the dampness. Mental depression is considered another harmful effect.

Immense Statue

J. W. McSpadden in his book on American sculpture says that to carve such a huge figure as the statue of Lincoln in the Lincoln memorial from a single block would be impossible. Twenty-eight blocks of Georgia marble, perfect and without fissures or seams, were used in creating this statue. The total mass measured over 4,000 cubic feet. The statue weighs 270 tons.

A HIGH SCHOOL OR PATCHES?

A SERIOUS situation is before the voters of Brainerd and from the talk on the "street" one would be lead to believe that the voters are not appreciating this fact.

Brainerd's grade schools are crowded and her high school is jammed. The question is, how can this be remedied correctly at the least cost? Unfortunately this question is to be settled at a time when the voters are feeling the effect of the orgy of reckless expenditures so prevalent all over the country several years ago. Then bonds were voted freely. They wanted and demanded that municipal, county and state officials give them improvements of all kinds. They then clamored for a new high school and called the school board uncomplimentary names for their slowness.

The school board refused to be drawn into the recklessness of that hour and went ahead planning to reduce its indebtedness to a point where they could properly finance a school building without making it burdensome to the taxpayers. The majority of the board believes that that time is here. They have carefully considered the best course to pursue and after so doing recommended a moderate priced high school building as the best way out. They do this with the future in view. The Lowell, Harrison and Lincoln buildings are crowded. An addition to the present high school might relieve the congestion there for the time being. It would only be temporary and the grade schools would not be benefited. They would still have to use crowded rooms and the basements. They might build some additions to them but when all would be completed a heavy expenditure would have been made and patched buildings would be the result. These patched buildings would not then meet the needs. And still a new high school building would be needed within a very few years and doubtless would be built.

The majority of the board recommends a new high school building properly constructed to meet the demands of the educational program. This would permit the use of the present high school building to relieve the crowded Harrison and Lincoln buildings and to some extent the Lowell building. This would give facilities equal to the need. This would permit of the needed junior high school. This would cost a little more than patches but will it not be cheaper in the end? Even though taxes are to be considered can Brainerd afford to do other than the thing which should be done, and that is, build the new high school and make a permanent improvement which will solve the crowded school situation properly? Save us the cost of unsatisfactory patches.

SPRING IS REALLY HERE

OUT in the Brainerd Lake Region as well as in Brainerd one finds unmistakable evidence that Miss Spring is here. One hears the joyous song of robins, the piping of bluebirds. Maple sap is running and Anton Mahlum has started to boil sap in his sugar bush where Chief Hole-in-the-Day, years ago, crudely performed the task. Mr. Mahlum, on the other hand, has modern machinery for boiling the sap and running it off into containers.

Enthusied by a temperature of 52 degrees Sunday, two Minneapolis young and pretty society girls in a party visiting Breezy Point Lodge, Big Pelican Lake, where Captain William H. Fawcett is constructing a $350,000 hotel, donned their bathing suits, and swam from shore to the line of ice beyond and back, to the plaudits of a huge crowd watching them. Special tokens are to be given these mermaids for being the first to open the bathing season this year.

The elk and buffalo herds at Breezy Point Lodge weathered the winter admirably and are in the finest condition. The elk are being groomed to meet the Elk herd which convenes at Brainerd and Breezy Point in state convention this August.

Baseball games are being played at the N. P. athletic park, and the cry of the umpire will soon reverberate through the land. Gladioli beds by the hundreds will soon rear their pretty heads in Brainerd.

APPLAUSE AS A TONIC

APPLAUSE, given in appreciative doses, acts as a stimulant and spurs an actor to better endeavor. Applause serves as a barometer to the man on stage and lets any keen minded person know whether or not the act or his lines are "going over."

Nothing so dead, so discouraging, so apathetic as an audience which sits silently and frigidly and never gives a single pat of appreciation. To the man of wide experience, no applause means that his show or act really has no merit in the opinion of the audience.

Actors are the same as children in temperament. Pat a child on the back, appreciate his efforts and he will redouble his exertions to please you. We are all children at heart and it's only when we become super-critical and stingy with our bouquets, and barrage of hand clapping, that the actor becomes as listless as the house, simply reflecting the spirit shown.

True, shows sometimes are not of super-excellence. But there is merit in many places if we take the opportunity to find it and to show our appreciation in a visible manner.

THEY ALSO SERVE WHO WORK UNSEEN

THEY also serve who work unseen. They gain not the plaudits of the world, the only satisfaction being that inner consciousness which realizes that work well done brings its own reward.

We refer, for instance, to cases like these. Inspiring is the sound of the huge pipe organ as its well rounded periods fill every nook and cranny of the sacred edifice. But oftentimes the motor which is life to the lungs of the organ refuses to function and the sexton mans the machinery. Alone, at the peak of things, he does his part in the scheme of things. Unseen, but nevertheless now a most substantial part of the mechanism, he speeds the wheels and the organ "speaks."

True, he may be no musician. He may not recognize one note from another. But it merely goes to show that in the operation of great things in the universe, the Master Musician has a place for each of us. Inconsequential as the positions may seem, they contribute to the general harmony.

Favors High School Bond Issue

To the taxpayers of Brainerd, and that means every one who eats and sleeps in our city, let us reason together:

Good citizens are the most valuable assets of any community. Next to the home the school is doing the most toward good citizenship. Are we aware of the conditions of this "citizenship factory?" If not let us believe Inspector Phillips who told us 10 or 12 years ago that we needed a new high school. Let us believe Supt. Cobb and the high school faculty who are doing wonderful work, considering the lack of facilities. Let us believe those parents who have taken the time to visit the "basement class rooms" and "attic class rooms" and say they do not compare favorably with an up-to-date daily barn. Let us believe in the sincerity of one of the best school boards in the state of Minnesota who have worked overtime without one cent of pay to plan the financial side of this "citizen factory" year after year.

Now is our opportunity to shoulder our responsibility in this matter which is adding at most only 1-12 to our present taxes. Look at that 1-12. Are 500 "little citizens" worth it? I say "yes," when only $250,000 are asked for. I say "yes" when I know this money is to be expended by such men as Geo. D. LaBar, president, and F. M. Hagberg, chairman of finance committee, and all the other splendid, thoughtful, conservative folks that make up the ten members of our present school board.

Heave ho! voters! on April 7th, next Tuesday, and give the school board your hearty co-operation by voting "yes" for the bonds.

Don't be thoughtless or unkind to anyone. Let us be generous to the kiddies. Give them a "little bit of Heaven" by way of a new high school. They are our "guests" until full-fledged citizens.

Editor Dispatch:

If you will allow me space I wish to reply to the article in your paper signed by H. Peterson concerning a suit against the city.

In the first place that article was inspired and put out as campaign material, and second, it fails to give the facts, which are these:

Almost one year after notice of injury had been given to the city council by the plaintiff, Mrs. Crowell, her attorney, residing at Minneapolis, T. L. O'Hearn and W. H. Crowell, prepared and signed the summons and complaint for service.

Crowell came to Brainerd with them, and before service of the papers on the city and on R. R. Wise, who was made co-defendant with the city, he asked me to sign the same and act as local attorney, which I did for accommodation as much as anything, and for convenience in having some local attorney for service of papers upon.

I did not start the action, do not control it, and could not have prevented it being started and furthermore do not regard myself as attorney in the same for any other purpose.

Furthermore, as to this being unethical or illegal, there is nothing to that.

The municipal judge is not permitted to practice as an attorney in cases in the court of which he is judge, but is permitted to act as attorney in district, federal, probate court and other municipal courts. Otherwise, on the meager salary paid by this office of $53.00 per month, no one could afford to give his entire time and service, besides furnish an office, too, which the city council has never furnished to him in the city hall.

A HIGH SCHOOL OR PATCHES?

A SERIOUS situation is before the voters of Brainerd and from the talk on the "street" one would be lead to believe that the voters are not appreciating this fact.

Brainerd's grade schools are crowded and her high school is jammed. The question is, how can this be remedied correctly at the least cost? Unfortunately this question is to be settled at a time when the voters are feeling the effect of the orgy of reckless expenditures so prevalent all over the country several years ago. Then bonds were voted freely. They wanted and demanded that municipal, county and state officials give them improvements of all kinds. They then clamored for a new high school and called the school board uncomplimentary names for their slowness.

The school board refused to be drawn into the recklessness of that hour and went ahead planning to reduce its indebtedness to a point where they could properly finance a school building without making it burdensome to the taxpayers. The majority of the board believes that that time is here. They have carefully considered the best course to pursue and after so doing recommended a moderate priced high school building as the best way out. They do this with the future in view. The Lowell, Harrison and Lincoln buildings are crowded. An addition to the present high school might relieve the congestion there for the time being. It would only be temporary and the grade schools would not be benefited. They would still have to use crowded rooms and the basements. They might build some additions to them but when all would be completed a heavy expenditure would have been made and patched buildings would be the result. These patched buildings would not then meet the needs. And still a new high school building would be needed within a very few years and doubtless would be built.

EIGHTEEN B. H. S. ATHLETES RECEIVE
THEIR LETTERS AT ANNUAL BANQUET

One of the most successful events in the history of the Brainerd High School, took place last Thursday evening, in the domestic Science rooms of the High School where the athletes of the school met to take part in a very elaborate dinner and to receive the coveted "B's."

The table was set for thirty and was decorated with a miniature basketball floor in the center. A very novel idea was instituted in the line of place-cards. A silhouette view of every man present had been sketched previously and reproduced in black upon a white card with an appropriate verse below, so that if unable to recognize one's countenance, one had the verse to rely upon. The lower part of the card included drawings of either a football or basketball or both, according to the activity of the player.

When the bell rang to adjourn to the banquet hall, a riot was avoided only due to the fact that the door had been built wide enough to admit three or more persons at once and after the assembly had been properly seated the festivities of the evening began.

The menu consisted of the following:
Creamed Chicken Mashed Potatoes
Cabbage Salad
Buttered Carrots and Peas
Parker House Rolls Coffee
Apple Pie a La Mode Cake
During this time very little noise could be heard as everyone was attending strictly to the business at hand.

After the last remnant of pie had been disposed of, and many signs of distress had been made, Mr. Krueger, who acted as efficiently in his new role as toastmaster as on the athletic field, called for order, and introduced the various persons on the program. Myrtle Haake, accompanied by Lorraine Morrison, rendered two solos in her usual good voice, which drew much applause from her appreciative audience.

Helen Paine then gave a reading, a Norse version of "The Midnight Ride of Paul Revere." As an encore she gave another entitled, "Uncle Josh Has His Picture Took," which took the audience by storm. Next the High School orchestra appeared on the scene rendering several beautiful selections.

Mr. Krueger then called upon Dr. Nicholson for a talk. Dr. Nicholson more than any other individual outside of the High School circles, has taken an active interest in B. H. S. and her athletic teams, and gave a very fine talk on athletics as a whole. He stated that because of the crowded condition of the school, and the smallness of the basketball floor our athletes deserve great and due credit in putting out the teams they have in the past and that the athletes should never lose sight of the fact that they are being watched by the future athletes of the school and should govern themselves accordingly.

Harry Lyndon, past football captain, then gave a talk on school spirit which he said shows itself more on the football field than in any other line of school endeavor.

Walter Engbretson, basketball captain, was next called upon, on the subject of "Teamwork," which he said includes three essentials: sportsmanship, harmony and school spirit, and after expressing his hope for good teams in the future he closed, thereby ending the speeches.

Next in order was the main event of the evening, the presentation of the letters. Mr. Cobb, before presenting them, asked the boys to bear in mind that when they are wearing their letters, to remember that they are representing the Brainerd High School and that they should bear in mind the principles for which she stands. The men who received letters are:

Basketball—Walter Engbretson, Leland Avery, Carl Rosenberg, Wil-

Who, What and Where

The grade school basketball tournament will be held after the Easter vacation.

Almost all of the faculty left to spend their seven days' holiday in points out of town. Miss Tornstrom went to Excelsior, Minn., and the Misses Hall, Erstad and Laipple, and Messrs. Johnson, Schaumburg and Krueger for Minneapolis; the Misses Oldenberg and Smith left for Wisconsin; Miss Schow for St. Paul; the Misses Larson, Jorandby and Dean for Duluth, the range and Minneapolis; Miss Lohr for Wahpeton, N. D.; Miss Mosier for Worthington, and Miss Thomas to Lake Crystal, Minn.

Seniors, lest you forget, Dress Up Day will be held April 9th, and the more ancient four costumes are, the better.

"The teachers had their group pictures taken for the annual last Friday, but the students had to wait for more favorable weather. We had a great deal of pity on Mr. Gorham who needlessly had to lug up two heavy cameras for the express purpose of taking the class pictures.

Thursday noon, Middy and Dick, two Young Lochinvars, left for the west, leaving high broken hearts behind them. Washington and Oregon will be a fine place to live in when those two mortals appear. That is, of course, if they regain their normal spirits and attitude towards life for they early shed tears and swallowed great lumps in their throats when they said adieu to the admiring group at the station which consisted of Ken Bouma, Lucy Cardie, Kay Nolan, Beans Fisher, Oppie and Dort, and last but not least—Steve and Pete. 'Twas a sad beginning for a wonderful trip, but they'll get over it, and needless to say it will be a mighty long two weeks for some people!

Mr. Swanson created a pleasant surprise to the boys present at the athletic banquet last Thursday by presenting for consumption two huge white cakes, the topmost perfection in the art of delicatessen. Needless to say, the cakes disappeared quickly, proving beyond a doubt that they were greatly appreciated.

A crowded gym greeted the last basketball event of the season last Thursday. It seems astounding what an attraction is afforded by a faculty team, to bring out a record house! The Brainionians heads wish to thank all participants of the evening for their assistance, not omitting the girls in the style show and Miss Uglum.

News for the Alma Mater

Students from the University of Minnesota who are spending the Easter vacation at their homes are:

John Peters, '17; Harold Jones, '21; Bill Graham, '23; Eugene Hitch, '24; Eddie Hendrickson, '21; Kenneth Nicholson, '24; Walter Herman, '23; Virginia Casey, '22; George Engstrom and Eugene Erickson.

Aileen King, '24, St. Cloud Normal also spent her vacation in Brainerd, as did Gifford Peterson, '24, and Lloyd Lewis, '23.

Elmo Apuli: "What are you going to do on Easter Day?"
Elmer Erickson: "I am going to get up early and go and steal Easter eggs from the Easter Rabbit."

H. S.: "It takes a man just as long to become an undertaker as a doctor."

Miss Hall: "No, it doesn't. It only takes an undertaker three months to learn the trade."

H. S.: "Then, that's what I'm going to be."

Ham Opsahl, Kent Whitlock, Vernon Dieckhaus, John Tribur.

Coch Krueger then led some yells for Dr. Nicholson and Mr. Cobb and John Fisher, for Mr. Rosel and Mr. Krueger, and then everyone adjourned to the gym to see that evening's games.

UNDERWRITERS HAVE THEIR PICTURES TAKEN

Now, Gene, you stand here, Emily next, Ray over here! Oh, Gene, stand where I put you. Poor Sophie was sorer than a sunburned neck, trying to arrange the underwriters for their picture. Ray Anderson was the only one who loyally consented to stand in the front row but Ray wasn't big enough to fill the first, so Margaret O'B was put next and little Howard next. Margaret objected fiercely, "Oh, I'll look like a tub between these little things."

Fern was put next, only to say, "I'll look like a bean pole at this end." Poor Sophie by now has three gray hairs.

Stewart Giles manipulated the death dealing instrument and shot all the pictures. After the machine had done its dirty work, a meeting was held per usual. Nuff sed till next time.

PRESENTATION OF
1925 PENNANT

The scene is laid in England about the time of King Richard III. The setting is a field ready for a tournament with the tents of the knights arranged around. And with this background the basketball interclass championship pennant was presented to the Seniors in a burlesque of "Ivanhoe," which is so familiar to all High School students.

Gerald Schrader, as Mr. Cobb, rode around the field several times on his bicycle with his plumes and cape flying in the breeze and then seated himself in state at one end of the field. The approach of the Queen of Love and Beauty was announced by the herald, Dale Sanders, garbed in crimson and with his bugle glittering in the sun. The lovely and delicate Queen of Beauty (Leland Avery) appeared with her enchanting features hidden from the gaze of the multitude by a shadowy lace veil.

Preceding her came Edwin Brending carrying the pennant and three attendants, James O'Brien, Albert Swanson and Anthony Koop, all garbed in suitable costumes followed the Queen. This procession moved with great pomp and ceremony over to the throne whereon the Queen seated herself and the attendants were grouped at the side.

Harold Scarlet read the following scroll, which was the proclamation of the tournament:

Hear ye, hear ye—Silence in the lists! By order of his most royal and puissant majesty, Wilbur, of the Great and Noble House of Cobb, his gracious highness doth this day proclaim a tournament to settle for ever and aye which of his most loyal and devoted subjects shall become the possessor of this emblem of his royal favor—this battle-scarred standard of the king. Many a war has it lived through, fought for, gashed with sword cuts, soiled by the soot of many years, stolen by base varlets, and concealed in dungeons deep. Now his majesty doth proclaim that Harry of the Curly Locks, most high and mighty ruler of the powerful realm of the "Noblest of All," doth here and now issue challenge to any knights of his own rank, and calls upon any such knights to do battle royal for the possession of this banner.

So far those who challenge his right to possess it are Sir Stewart the Red, ruler of the Realm of Love; the Prince Consort of the Queen of the doughty Sophomores; and Lord Eugene of the Shining Scalpels, King of the Verdant Freshmen; and Henry I of the Fleming Kingdom.

Further, according to the laws of chivalry, the reward shall go to the victor of the lists to be decreed, and the banner shall be bestowed by the Queen of Love and Beauty, who yonder awaiteth the outcome of the challenge.

See that this shall be done according to the ancient rules of chivalry.

Glorious Easter! Besides reminding us of the time it commemorates it is a true herald of spring—spring with crocuses and violets peeping from the ground, gray pussy willows, budding trees, green grasses, flowing creeks, opening rivers, robins, spring bonnets, Palm Beach suits and vacation.

It is indeed a joyous time, everyone seems to tingle with a new interest and a desire "to do something" and to quote Tennyson, "In the spring a young man's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of love!"

Young man and young woman—especially those of you who are graduating, have you ever thought of the fact that this Easter vacation might be the last school vacation you'll ever have? It isn't impossible but highly improbable that you or your classmates will extend your careers to a college or university campus and therefore wouldn't it be wise to make the most of the remaining days that are still left to you in B. H. S.?

You, no doubt, are imbued with the above mentioned spirit—if you haven't been active in any H. S. activities there is still a chance for you to redeem yourself. If you've never enjoyed the privileges of the honor-roll make a supreme effort and attain that end. Girls, go out for the volley and baseball teams; boys, win your "B" in baseball—you with the literary turn of mind, take satisfaction in having your articles published in the Brainionian. Indeed, there are countless ways in which you can make your mark and last weeks in B. H. S. count. Get out of that rut, do something worth-while, something that will make your classmates want to remember you by in after years. Remember, it's your last chance, eight weeks to go—and may a happy Easter vacation be yours to give you the needful pep to carry you over the top.

Charging forward on his spirited steed, Stewart Gile, or rather, Sir Stewart the Red, Junior President, was ready for the conflict. The Knight of the Curly Locks rode to meet him, and with a terrific clash the last tilt began. Here the Curly Locks found a knight worthy to meet him, and they fought long. Having both been unhorsed, the conflict continued hand to hand. After a long and hard struggle the Red was conquered and the Knight of the Curly Locks stood victorious. Advancing to the throne he knelt before the Queen of Love and Beauty and received from her dainty hand the prize of the tournament, the Interclass Basketball Pennant, amid the cheers of the assembly.

Chillblains and Rheumatism

Ugh! Ugh! Heap big Indian chief or the Senior room has acquired a basketball shirt! We wonder who was so considerate as to procure the aged relic to clothe and keep the wintry March winds from the statue. But probably the person blushed for the scanty attire of the noble Redman and wished to dress him in the accoutrements of this modern time. We certainly are glad that the statue has not long hair or the unknown party might try the highly impossible thing of bobbing its tresses. That would really be too modern. Although we truly believe that the statue appeared at its best without the shirt, we suggest that if it must be dressed, the girls new B. B. shirts would be much more becoming. If Emil M. could be prevailed upon to lend his socks, they would do much towards keeping the chillblains from the pioneer's feet. We thank you.

SOPHS DEFEAT
WORLD BEATERS

The whistle blew—the Sophs and "World-Beaters" were ready to fight for fame and glory.

The game was one that ought to be remembered by all who saw it because it was clean and fast throughout. Of course, a certain amount of fouling was done, but this can't always be helped. The Sophs are certainly winning fame, and they deserve much credit for their ability in playing a clever game, and for their good sportsmanship. The passing of both teams was done in splendid shape and the guarding was excellent.

Glady's Reuter fought as though she had to dig a mine before midnight, showing her best athletic traits and was one of the outstanding stars, while Turner, as usual, could roll 'em in even if her running mate Beggs was not there to assist her. Fern Lewis, too, showed the crowd that she could play. With Iva Trask and Iona Hollingsworth at center and Alta Storm and Glady's Reuter as guard they won the challenge game by a score of 12 to 0.

Although the World-Beaters didn't do any scoring, they had the Sophs on the jump at all times, the guards especially reaping many compliments. Grace Alzant, as jumping center, played the best game for the losers, being after the ball every minute of play. The forwards were unlucky with their shots but considering the guards opposing them they did very good work. The challenge game was accepted by the rest of the B. H. S. girls from the Sophomores and even though they lost, they wish to give three cheers for the winners.

The line-ups:
Sophs World-Beaters
E. Turner r.f. M. Michael
F. Lewis l.f. E. Nolan (Capt)
I. Trask j.c. G. Alzant
I. Hollingsworth r.c. G. Link
A. Storm r.g. S. Foster
G. Reuter (Capt) l.g. G. Smith
Substitutes: Irene Young for Eleanor Nolan; Lenora Reegan for Sylvia Foster.

The 1925 Annual

Slowly, yet surely, the work on the 1925 Brainionian yearly is going onward, and with the co-operation of all the Staff and the willing Underwriters, the various organizations in the group pictures and half-tones, as well as by the support of the Student body, the work will not be in vain and the fourth year-book will eventually reach the "Bigger and Better" stage.

This week is vacation, but next week will give opportunity for the workers on the subscription drive to capture those negligent ones who have not as yet purchased their annual for the small amount of seventy-five cents. Our enrollment amounts to over four hundred. We wish to sell two hundred and eighty annuals but find little enthusiasm and spirit. If every person in the Senior class and every second person in the rest of the classes buys an annual we will not have enough copies. We sold enough last year, but it took weeks of urging. Why not save us this extra energy, or rather permit us to spend the work and time taken up by selling subscriptions on the book itself?

Mr. Johnson: "Edwin, what are the chief agricultural products of New Foundland?"

Edwin A.: "Well, they have cod fish and salmon."

Miss Laipple (in Biology): "What can we do for the birds besides build houses for them?"

Werner P.: "Kill the cat."

Miss Hall: "To what extent did the crusades go in the world?"

Student: "Why, about six years before they started they were all over Europe."

Bessie Smith (yelling for the Seniors in the tournaments): "But when it comes to basketball Seniors crack the ice."

Miss Lohr: "What are A. B. and C?"

Bright One: "Hindoos."

Faculty Vs. Sophomore
Interclass Champs

The undefeated Sophomore interclass champions met their first defeat last Thursday in a fast preliminary game versus the B. H. S. faculty.

There were clowns and hikers playing basketball, (in class we called them teachers), and they played like clowns, so they say, and hiked like hikers, but nevertheless, they won. Yet the game was interesting, the Faculty holding their opponents scoreless except for two free throws. The other members of the Faculty did their share also, yelling something like this:

"Ice cream, soda water, strawberry pop.
We keep the Sophomores on the hop."

But yelling was nothing compared to the playing. Poor little Anna Hendrickson had the ball, and Miss Uglum, she up and took that ball right away from her and tried and tried to make a basket, and the basket got in the ball's way and the ball went through the hoop. Then there was a yell from the sideline, don't know why, cause of course everybody knew the teachers would win.

In the center Miss Hall and Miss Dean took turns to see which one could jump higher than Helen Paine, and Miss Caughey tried to see if she could run faster than Esther Gallagher and carry the ball over to Miss Tornstrom or Miss Uglum. Sometimes Esther got the ball and tossed it to Lena Gravelle, but the Misses Larson and Jorandby thought that wouldn't do, so they got very busy and brought the ball to Miss Tornstrom, who, (thank the lucky stars) also made a basket. This brought the score to 4-2. Toward the very end of the game Miss Uglum made another basket, but it was just a bit too late. Now, who says the teachers can't play basketball!

Freshmen Meeting

A meeting of the Freshmen was held Thursday after school at 3:30 for the purpose of soliciting the class dues. The Freshmen of course want their pictures in the Annual and were therefore very interested in this subject. Dues are due or overdue. If you want your class picture in the Annual, pay your dues and do it now. "Delays are dangerous." Donald MacNamara, our treasurer, says that he is capable of treasuring much more money. "Now, all smile and look pleasant, please."

The first girls' interclass game of the season went off with a bang. Both the Juniors and Sophomores played a fast game. At the end of the first half the score was 4 to 1 in the Juniors' favor. Nolan starred for the Juniors, while Perlman and Gallagher of the Sophomores could not easily be outclassed. The game ended with a score of 6 to 6. The time was extended five minutes, in which Lewis made a field goal which ended the game with a score of 8 to 6 in the Sophomores' favor.

Freshmen-Seniors
In the Freshmen-Senior game excitement ran high when, at the end of the first quarter the Freshies held the larger Seniors down so that the score was only 2 to 4 with the Seniors ahead. Equally good playing was done by members of both teams, but, in spite of all the Freshmen could do to prevent it, the Seniors won, 12 to 5.

Senior-Sophomore
The Seniors and Sophomores were ready for battle in the third game. Each team had won the game that it had played previously to this and both classes were confident of victory. At the end of the first half the Sophomores were leading and after a very hard fight they won by a score of 6 to 2.

Seniors-Juniors
In the Senior-Junior game a great deal of speedy playing was shown by both sides. The teams were about equally matched, both having been defeated by a very small margin by the Sophomores. The first half ended with the Juniors leading by a score of 6 to 3. The Seniors were, in the end, defeated by a score of 10 to 7.

Freshmen-Sophomores
The Freshmen showed their ability, in spite of just their one year of training, to great advantage, when they held the Sophomores down to a small score. During the first half Molstad of the Freshmen caged one field goal, Perlman and Lewis together of the Sophs three. The game ended with a score of 8 to 4 and the Sophomore girls undefeated.

Juniors-Freshmen
The Junior-Freshmen game was one of the speediest of the season, for the Juniors were only once defeated. At the end of the first quarter the Freshies showed what they were made of by holding the Juniors down to a score of 6 to 6. The Juniors, however, increased the score by eight points while the Freshmen's score was only raised by one, so the Juniors won, 14-7.

Normal Training Notes

Spring has come, and with it thirty-two little primary tots. Not only are the plants and trees growing, but also the knowledge of the little ones. What could be more interesting than to watch their minds develop. They surely are the little dears!

What a happy surprise! We were requested to take the state exams, and, of course, got through with a pass pass. Funny things to creep into even teachers' papers. For instance, "Coriteens," (meaning quarantines), are very effective in checking contagious diseases.

The old pep is still with us. If, when yelling, you want to drown the noise of the other side just call for the "Dirty Four" in the normal department. If you think we can't do it, just ask Kay Nolan for her opinion; she realized it in Thursday's game, also much to her sorrow.

Vacation may part us, but not for long. The out of town girls have left us, while the Brainerdites will have pleasurable afternoon reunions at several of the girls' homes. Those having left the city to spend the vacations at home are: Bess Bailey to Pillager, Myrtle Evensta to Pillager, Hazel Marsh to Millacs, Lois Alderman to Grey Eagle, May Fitzpatrick to South Long, and Irma Siler to Sylvan.

Miss Laipple (in Botany class): "Helen, in what way do lichens resemble the algae?"

Helen: "They're green."

T. H. turning around to girl behind her: "I resemble the algae."

H. M.: "How?"

T. H.: "Why, I'm green."

EIGHTEEN B. H. S. ATHLETES RECEIVE
THEIR LETTERS AT ANNUAL BANQUET

One of the most successful events in the history of the Brainerd High School, took place last Thursday evening, in the domestic Science rooms of the High School where the athletes of the school met to take part in a very elaborate dinner and to receive the coveted "B's."

The table was set for thirty and was decorated with a miniature basketball floor in the center. A very novel idea was instituted in the line of place-cards. A silhouette view of every man present had been sketched previously and reproduced in black upon a white card with an appropriate verse below, so that if unable to recognize one's countenance, one had the verse to rely upon. The lower part of the card included drawings of either a football or basketball or both, according to the activity of the player.

When the bell rang to adjourn to the banquet hall, a riot was avoided only due to the fact that the door had been built wide enough to admit three or more persons at once and after the assembly had been properly seated the festivities of the evening began.

The menu consisted of the following:
Creamed Chicken Mashed Potatoes
Cabbage Salad
Buttered Carrots and Peas
Parker House Rolls Coffee
Apple Pie a La Mode Cake

During this time very little noise could be heard as everyone was attending strictly to the business at hand.

After the last remnant of pie had been disposed of, and many signs of distress had been made, Mr. Krueger, who acted as toastmaster in his new role as toastmaster as on the athletic field, called for order, and introduced the various persons on the program. Myrtle Haake, accompanied by Lorraine Morrison, rendered two solos in her usual good voice, which drew much applause from her appreciative audience.

Helen Paine then gave a reading, a Norsk version of "The Midnight Ride of Paul Revere." As an encore she gave another entitled, "Uncle Josh Has His Picture Took," which took the audience by storm. Next the High School orchestra appeared on the scene rendering several beautiful selections.

Mr. Krueger then called upon Dr. Nicholson for a talk. Dr. Nicholson more than any other individual outside of the High School circles, has taken an active interest in B. H. S. and her athletic teams, and gave a very fine talk on athletics as a whole. He stated that because of the crowded condition of the school, and the smallness of the basketball floor our athletes deserve great and due credit in putting out the teams they have in the past and that the athletes should never lose sight of the fact that they are being watched by the future athletes of the school and should govern themselves accordingly.

Harry Lyndon, past football captain, then gave a talk on school spirit which he said shows itself more on the football field than in any other line of school endeavor.

Walter Engbretson, basketball captain, was next called upon, on the subject of "Teamwork," which he said includes three essentials: sportsmanship, harmony and school spirit, and after expressing his hope for good teams in the future he closed, thereby ending the speeches.

Next in order was the main event of the evening, the presentation of the letters. Mr. Cobb, before presenting them, asked the boys to bear in mind that when they are wearing their letters, to remember that they are representing the Brainerd High School and that they should bear in mind the principles for which she stands. The men who received letters are:

Basketball—Walter Engbretson, Leland Avery, Carl Rosenberg, Wil-

Who, What and Where

The grade school basketball tournament will be held after the Easter vacation.

Almost all of the faculty left to spend their seven days' holiday in points out of town. Miss Tornstrom went to Excelsior, Minn., and the Misses Hall, Erstad and Laipple, and Messrs. Johnson, Schaumburg and Krueger for Minneapolis; the Misses Oldenberg and Smith left for Wisconsin; Miss Schow for St. Paul; the Misses Larson, Jorandby and Dean for Duluth, the range and Minneapolis; Miss Lohr to Wahpeton, N. D.; Miss Mosier to Worthington, and Miss Thomas to Lake Crystal, Minn.

Seniors, lest you forget, Dress Up Day will be held April 9th, and the more ancient four costumes are, the better.

The teachers had their group pictures taken for the annual last Friday, but the students had to wait for more favorable weather. We had a great deal of pity on Mr. Gorham who needlessly had to lug up two heavy cameras for the express purpose of taking the class pictures.

Thursday noon, Middy and Dick, two Young Lochinvars, left for the west, leaving high broken hearts behind them. Washington and Oregon will be a fine place to live in when those two mortals appear. That is of course, if they regain their normal spirits and attitude towards life for they early shed tears and swallowed great lumps in their throats when they said adieu to the admiring group at the station which consisted of Ken Bouma, Lucy Cardie, Kay Nolan, Beans Fisher, Oppie and Dert, and last but not least—Steve and Pete. 'Twas a sad beginning for a wonderful trip, but they'll get over it, and needless to say it will be a mighty long two weeks for some people!

Mr. Swanson created a pleasant surprise to the boys present at the athletic banquet last Thursday by presenting for consumption two huge white cakes, the topmost perfection in the art of delicatessen. Needless to say, the cakes disappeared quickly, proving beyond a doubt that they were greatly appreciated.

A crowded gym greeted the last basketball event of the season last Thursday. It seems astounding what an attraction is afforded by a faculty team, to bring out a record house! The Brainerdians heads wish to thank all participants of the evening for their assistance, not omitting the girls in the style show and Miss Uglum.

News for the Alma Mater

Students from the University of Minnesota who are spending the Easter vacation at their homes are:

John Peters, '17; Harold Jones, '21; Bill Graham, '23; Eugene Hitch, '24; Eddie Hendrickson, '21; Kenneth Nicholson, '24; Walter Herman, '23; Virginia Casey, '22; George Engstrom and Eugene Erickson.

Aileen King, '24, St. Cloud Normal also spent her vacation in Brainerd, as did Gifford Peterson, '24, and Lloyd Lewis, '23.

Elmo Apuli: "What are you going to do on Easter Day?"
Elmer Erickson: "I am going to get up early and go and steal Easter eggs from the Easter Rabbit."

H. S.: "It takes a man just as long to become an undertaker as a doctor."
Miss Hall: "No, it doesn't. It only takes an undertaker three months to learn the trade."
H. S.: "Then, that's what I'm going to be."

Liam Opsahl, Kent Whitlock, Vernon Dieckhaus, John Tribur.

Coach Krueger then led some yells for Dr. Nicholson and Mr. Cobb and John Fisher, for Mr. Rosel and Mr. Krueger, and then everyone adjourned to the gym to see that evening's games.

Ugh! Ugh! Heap big Indian chief of the Senior room has acquired a basketball shirt! We wonder who was so considerate as to procure the aged relic to clothe and keep the wintry March winds from the statue. But probably the person blushed for the scanty attire of the noble Redman and wished to dress him in the accoutrements of this modern time. We certainly are glad that the statue has not long hair or the unknown party might try the highly impossible thing of bobbing its tresses. That would really be too modern. Although we truly believe that the statue appeared at its best without the shirt, we suggest that if it must be dressed, the girls new B. B. shirts would be much more becoming. If Emil M. could be prevailed upon to lend his socks, they would do much towards keeping the chillblains from the pioneer's feet. We thank you.

SOPHS DEFEAT
WORLD BEATERS

The whistle blew—the Sophs and "World-Beaters" were ready to fight for fame and glory.

The game was one that ought to be remembered by all who saw it because it was clean and fast throughout. Of course, a certain amount of fouling was done, but this can't always be helped. The Sophs are certainly winning fame, and they deserve much credit for their ability in playing a clever game, and for their good sportsmanship. The passing of both teams was done in splendid shape and the guarding was excellent.

Gladya Reuter fought as though she had to dig a mine before midnight, showing her best athletic traits and was one of the outstanding stars, while Turner, as usual, could roll 'em in even if her running mate Beggs was not there to assist her. Fern Lewis, too, showed the crowd that she could play. With Iva Trask and Iona Hollingsworth at center and Alta Storm and Gladya Reuter as guard they won the challenge game by a score of 12 to 6.

Although the World-Beaters didn't do any scoring, they had the Sophs on the jump at all times, the guards especially reaping many compliments. Grace Alant, as jumping center, played the best game for the losers, being after the ball every minute of play. The forwards were unlucky with their shots but considering the guards opposing them they did very good work. The challenge game was accepted by the rest of the B. H. S. girls from the Sophomores and even though they lost, they wish to give three cheers for the winners.

The line-ups:
Sophs World-Beaters
E. Turner r.f. M. Michael
F. Lewis l.f. E. Nolan (Capt)
I. Trask j.c. G. Alant
I. Hollingsworth r.c. G. Link
A. Storm r.g. S. Foster
G. Reuter (Capt) l.g. G. Smith
Substitutes: Irene Young for Eleanor Nolan; Lenora Reegan for Sylvia Foster.

The 1925 Annual

Slowly, yet surely, the work on the 1925 Brainerdian yearly is going onward, and with the co-operation of all the Staff and the willing Underwriters, the various organizations in the group pictures and half-tones, as well as by the support of the Student body, the work will not be in vain and the fourth year-book will eventually reach the "Bigger and Better" stage.

This week is vacation, but next week will give opportunity for the workers on the subscription drive to capture those negligent ones who have not as yet purchased their annual for the small amount of seventy-five cents. Our enrollment amounts to over four hundred. We wish to sell two hundred and eighty annuals but find little enthusiasm and spirit. If every person in the Senior class and every second person in the rest of the classes buys an annual we will not have enough copies. We sold enough last year, but it took weeks of urging. Why not save us this extra energy, or rather permit us to spend the work and time taken up by selling subscriptions on the book itself?

GIRLS' INTERCLASS PENNANT RUN
OFF WITH BY THE SOPHOMORES

BRAINLESS BITS

Bun Mraz in English II: "Friends, Romans and countrymen, lend me two bits."

Mr. Schaumburg in Science: "Herman B., name a conductor of electricity."

Herman: "Why, er—"

Mr. Schaumburg: "Correct!"

Miss Dean (to a student): "Put your gum in the basket."

E. K.: "I can't; it ain't mine. It's Floyd's."

Mr. Johnson: "Edwin, what are the chief agricultural products of New Foundland?"
Edwin A.: "Well, they have cod fish and salmon."

Miss Laipple (in Biology): "What can we do for the birds besides build houses for them?"
Werner P.: "Kill the cat."

Miss Hall: "To what extent did the crusades go in the world?"
Student: "Why, about six years before they started they were all over Europe."

Bessie Smith (yelling for the Seniors in the tournaments): "But when it comes to basketball Seniors crack the ice."
(By the Hindoo method of working quadratic in H. Algebra).
Miss Lohr: "What are A. B. and C?"
Bright One: "Hindoes."

Faculty Vs. Sophomore
Interclass Champs

The undefeated Sophomore interclass champions met their first defeat last Thursday in a fast preliminary game versus the B. H. S. faculty.

There were clowns and hikers playing basketball, (in class we called them teachers), and they played like clowns, so they say, and hiked like hikers, but nevertheless, they won. Yet the game was interesting, the Faculty holding their opponents scoreless except for two free throws. The other members of the Faculty did their share also, yelling something like this:

"Ice cream, soda water, strawberry pop."
We keep the Sophomores on the hop."

But yelling was nothing compared to the playing. Poor little Anna Hendrickson had the ball, and Miss Uglum, she up and took that ball right away from her and tried and tried to make a basket, and the basket got in the ball's way and the ball went through the hoop. Then there was a yell from the sideline, don't know why, cause of course everybody knew the teachers would win.

In the center Miss Hall and Miss Dean took turns to see which one could jump higher than Helen Paine, and Miss Caughey tried to see if she could run faster than Esther Gallagher and carry the ball over to Miss Tornstrom or Miss Uglum. Sometimes Esther got the ball and tossed it to Lena Gravelly, but the Misses Larson and Joyandy thought that wouldn't do, so they got very busy and brought the ball to Miss Tornstrom, who, (thank the lucky stars) also made a basket. This brought the score to 4-2. Toward the very end of the game Miss Uglum made another basket, but it was just a bit too late. Now, who says the teachers can't play basketball!

Freshmen Meeting

A meeting of the Freshmen was held Thursday after school at 3:30 for the purpose of soliciting the class dues. The Freshmen of course want their pictures in the Annual and were therefore very interested in this subject. Dues are due or overdue. If you want your class picture in the Annual, pay your dues and do it now. "Delays are dangerous." Donald MacNamara, our treasurer, says that he is capable of treasuring much more money. "Now, all smile and look pleasant, please."

The first girls' interclass game of the season went off with a bang. Both the Juniors and Sophomores played a fast game. At the end of the first half the score was 4 to 1 in the Juniors' favor. Nolan starred for the Juniors, while Perlman and Gallagher of the Sophomores could not easily be outclassed. The game ended with a score of 6 to 6. The time was extended five minutes, in which Lewis made a field goal which ended the game with a score of 8 to 6 in the Sophomores' favor.

Freshmen-Seniors
In the Freshmen-Senior game excitement ran high when, at the end of the first quarter the Freshies held the larger Seniors down so that the score was only 2 to 4 with the Seniors ahead. Equally good playing was done by members of both teams, but, in spite of all the Freshmen could do to prevent it, the Seniors won, 12 to 5.

Senior-Sophomores
The Seniors and Sophomores were ready for battle in the third game. Each team had won the game that it had played previously to this and both classes were confident of victory. At the end of the first half the Sophomores were leading and after a very hard fight they won by a score of 6 to 2.

Seniors-Juniors
In the Senior-Junior game a great deal of speedy playing was shown by both sides. The teams were about equally matched, both having been defeated by a very small margin by the Sophomores. The first half ended with the Juniors leading by a score of 6 to 3. The Seniors were, in the end, defeated by a score of 10 to 7.

Freshmen-Sophomores
The Freshmen showed their ability, in spite of just their one year of training, to great advantage, when they held the Sophomores down to a small score. During the first half Mostaid of the Freshmen caged one field goal, Perlman and Lewis together of the Sophs three. The game ended with a score of 8 to 4 and the Sophomore girls, undefeated.

Juniors-Freshmen
The Junior-Freshmen game was one of the speediest of the season, for the Juniors were only once defeated. At the end of the first quarter the Freshies showed what they were made of by holding the Juniors down to a score of 6 to 6. The Juniors, however, increased the score by eight points while the Freshmen's score was only raised by one, so the Juniors won, 14-7.

Normal Training Notes

Spring has come, and with it thirty-two little primary tots. Not only are the plants and trees growing, but also the knowledge of the little ones. What could be more interesting than to watch their minds develop. They surely are the little dears!

What a happy surprise! We were requested to take the state exams, and, of course, got through with a pass plus. Funny things to creep into even teachers' papers. For instance, "Cornteens," (meaning quantities), are very effective in checking contagious diseases.

The old pep is still with us. If, when yelling, you want to drown the noise of the other side just call for the "Dirty Four" in the normal department. If you think we can't do it, just ask Kay Nolan for her opinion; she realized it in Thursday's game, altho much to her sorrow.

Vacation may part us, but not for long. The out of town girls have left us, while the Brainerdites will have pleasurable afternoon reunions at several of the girls' homes. Those having left the city to spend the vacations at home are: Bess Bailey to Pillager, Myrtle Evensta to Pillager, Hazel Marsh to Millacs, Lois Alderman to Grey Eagle, May Fitzpatrick to South Long, and Irma Sliter to Sylvan.

Miss Laipple (in Botany class): "Helen, in what way do lichens resemble the algae?"

Helen: "They're green."

T. H. turning around to girl behind her: "I resemble the algae."

H. M.: "How?"

T. H.: "Why, I'm green."

American Legion Corner

Next Monday evening the local American Legion meets in regular session. Post Commander Sweet requests that all members turn out for this meeting.

James H. Drain, national commander, has appointed a France travel committee in preparation for the national convention in Paris in either 1927 or 1928. John J. Wicker of Richmond, Va., is chairman. This committee will make all plans regarding transportation and travel. Unprecedented low rates will be made with steamship companies, according to Mr. Wicker.

The St. Paul Legion posts are making a drive for 5,000 new members and many new stunts are on the program to gain new members. Musical organizations participating in the drive are the St. Thomas band, St. Paul police band, Elks' drum and bugle corp and Post No. 8 drum and bugle corps. The Carl Sidney Hanson Post of Brainerd wish them success.

The War Department recently dispensed with the services of 450 clerks in the adjusted compensation division, due to the rapidly diminishing number of applications for the bonus. Within the past three months applications for the bonus have been greatly expedited through the efforts of the American Legion and the bulk of those who will apply have now sent in their applications.

The local post is fostering a movement to plant a tree in Gregory park for each deceased soldier. It is planned to place the name of the soldier on the tree for whom it is planted, thus giving to the city a beautiful, living memorial to those who made the supreme sacrifice. The committee in charge of this movement asks that relatives of each soldier, whether he was a member of the Legion or not, who is buried in Evergreen cemetery, to list the names and service records of each with Arthur F. Hagberg, either at the Lively Auto Co., or at his home in West Brainerd.

The Carl Sidney Hanson Post of the American Legion agreed at a meeting over a year ago, to back the new high school movement. On April 7th the new high school will be a prominent issue. This is a movement worthy of every consideration and one which the American Legion must back. Our schools are a very important institution and when once the opportunity for obtaining them is passed, it is a very difficult matter to bring the cause back to prominence. Its importance is borne out by the fact that in the good, well-equipped school is where our Young Americans are taught the virtues that were so gallantly fought for in the recent war; where they are taught the essentials of true manhood and womanhood and good American citizenship. All Legionnaires are urged to get behind this new high school movement with both shoulders and do all in their power to put it over the top.

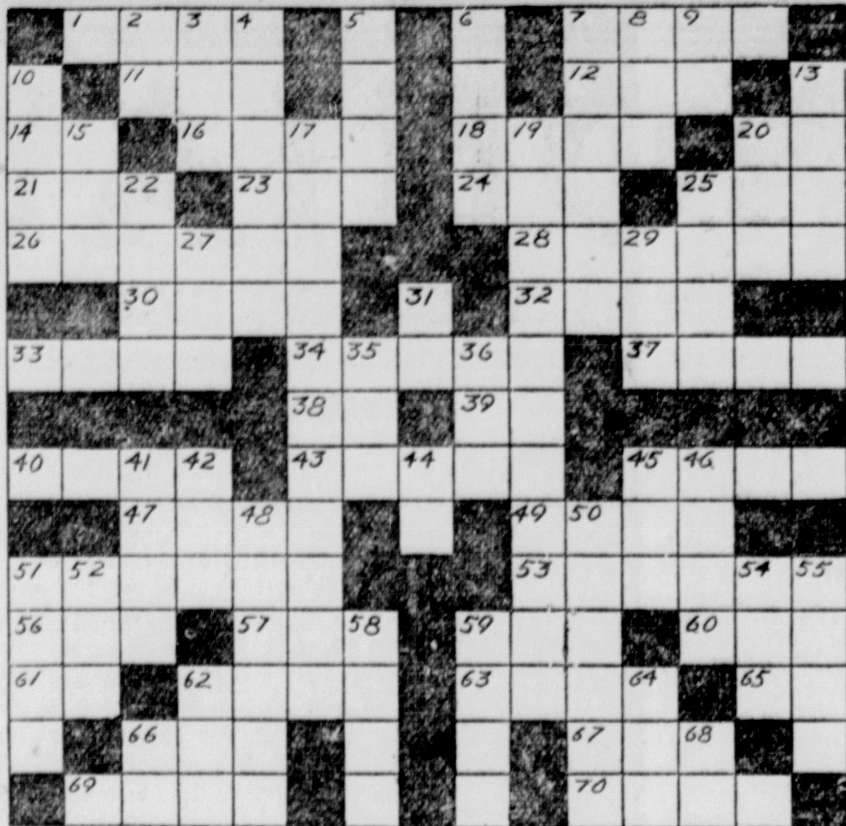

Twenty Norsemen who fought in the Civil War and a similar number who saw service during the World War will comprise the bodyguard of President Coolidge when he visits Minneapolis and St. Paul, June 8, on the occasion of the Norse-American centennial celebration, according to S. H. Holstad, of Minneapolis, managing director. The presidential guard will be recruited by Ole Nelson, Civil War veteran, and Edwin L. Lindell, commander of the American Legion, department of Minnesota. More than 4,000 Norsemen fought for the Union in the Civil War.

Minnesota's 500 Legion posts are busy engaging speakers and perfecting plan for honoring dead comrades of all wars on May 30th. Among the first speakers to be assigned are Ludwig L. Roe of Montevideo to Madelia, Father David Moran of Farmington to Glencoe, Stafford King of St. Paul to Olivia, S. B. Wennerberg of Center City to Rush City, State Commander Edwin L. Lindell to Aitkin.

"The Heart of the Gopher Legion" is now turned toward the successful attainment of plans which will provide in the nation a five million dollar endowment fund, the interest of which will bring to the orphans of world war veterans that which their parents, if living, would otherwise provide in the way of livelihood, education—the opportunity to make good as worth-while American citizens. To aid disabled world war veterans who cannot connect their injuries or sickness with their war service, is another purpose to which this fund will be dedicated. On March 26th Minnesota's state Legion commander, Edwin L. Lindell, together with State Adjutant Stafford King and State Secretary Miss Blanche Scallen of the Legion Auxiliary, met in Kansas City with similar representatives of all the states in the middle west, to map the endowment fund program for this territory, in consultation with National Commander James A. Drain and National Adjutant Russell Creviston. Eleven states were represented, each of which is shouldering its share of the work of raising the five million dollar fund. Minnesota's share is approximately $250,000—about $10 per member, payable in ten months—and any method deemed best by the local post may be used in raising its quota. Ideas as to the best methods by which Minnesota's 500 Legion posts and 400 Legion Auxiliary units may do their bit for their disabled comrades and the children of dead comrades, will form part of the discussion at the state conference of post and unit officers in Minneapolis April 3-4. One thing is certain—Minnesota will do her part.

A MESSAGE FOR MOTHERS

Leap Frog is Minus Dextrose is Plus

WHEN children play leap frog and other strenuous games they spend great energy—which helps them grow.

But that energy is replaced and stored up in their sturdy bodies when they eat food which contains the highly nutritive element known as Dextrose.

Because there is such a large percentage of Dextrose in Karo,

you should serve your growing children this delicious syrup often.

There are three kinds of Karo—Blue, Red and Orange Labels—all delicious in flavor and rich in nutrition. Karo is very economical because it can be served as a spread on bread, used for home-made candy and in all cooking and baking.

FREE—A Booklet about Dextrose every parent should read—it explains why children thrive on Dextrose and is sent free with the new, beautifully illustrated Corn Products Cook Book. Write CORN PRODUCTS SALES COMPANY 2388 University Ave. St. Paul, Minn.

A MESSAGE FOR MOTHERS

Leap Frog is Minus
Dextrose is Plus

WHEN children play leap frog and other strenuous games they spend great energy—which helps them grow.

But that energy is replaced and stored up in their sturdy bodies when they eat food which contains the highly nutritive element known as Dextrose.

Because there is such a large percentage of Dextrose in Karo,

you should serve your growing children this delicious syrup often.

There are three kinds of Karo—Blue, Red and Orange Labels—all delicious in flavor and rich in nutrition. Karo is very economical because it can be served as a spread on bread, used for home-made candy and in all cooking and baking.

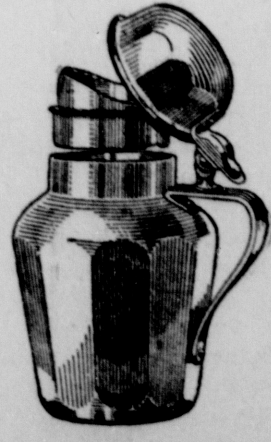

FREE—A Booklet about Dextrose every parent should read—it explains why children thrive on Dextrose and is sent free with the new, beautifully illustrated Corn Products Cook Book. Write

HUGEST MARL DEPOSIT IN COUNTRY

According to Report of Legislative Interim Committee Examining Conditions

STATE-OWNED CEMENT PLANT

Marl Deposits at Pelican Lake, White Fish Lake and Star Lake Region Mentioned

The largest deposit of marl suitable for manufacturing cement, was found in Crow Wing county, according to the report of the legislative interim committee looking into the feasibility of a state-owned cement plant.

The committee after an extensive investigation found that there were two marl beds, one near St. Cloud and one north of Brainerd, that had large enough quantities of marl that is of proper quality for cement making and the Crow Wing county deposits were the better.

The marl deposits in the Pelican lake, White Fish lake and Star lake regions are especially good, according to the committee's report. A very large body was found at Star lake that is approximately four miles wide and six miles long, with a depth of high grade marl of from 50 to 57 feet. It is positively one of the largest marl deposits so far known anywhere, reports the committee.

While the committee is reluctant to recommend a state-owned cement plant at this time, it feels that the Crow Wing county marl deposits are of the proper quality and quantity for such a plant. This is the conclusion reached after a very thorough investigation. High grade limestone that could be used for cement making was found near LeRoy in the extreme southern part of the state.

The legislators making up this committee are Senator Michael Boylan of Virginia, chairman; Senator E. W. Cameron, Minneapolis; Representative Carl M. Iverson, Ashby; former Representative Elias Nordgren, North Branch, and Representative Frank E. Nimocks, deceased. These men made a special trip to Brainerd several years ago and were taken on a tour of inspection of the various marl deposits in this county by the Chamber of Commerce, and expressed themselves as much pleased with what they found here.

Credit for discovering the Crow Wing county marl deposits and bringing them to the attention of the public goes to County Highway Engineer Walter M. Murphy and County Agent E. G. Roth, who have given the subject a great deal of attention. Mr. Murphy has been interested in this natural product as a surface material for highways. Extensive experiments that he has carried on have proven to be very satisfactory, both in wet and dry weather.

County Agent Roth has been able to capitalize the discovery of marl by using it on sandy and sour lands with excellent results, especially in the raising of alfalfa. In fact, without the use of marl on many tracts, Mr. Roth states that alfalfa could not have been grown in many localities and would never have become the important crop that it now is locally.

Mr. Murphy says that he hopes there will be further investigations of the Star lake marl deposits toward the end that a cement plant may be located there or the marl be otherwise commercialized.

Dr. and Mrs. H. J. Prendergast to New Home Where he is Assistant City Physician

The many friends of Dr. and Mrs. H. J. Prendergast will regret to learn that they are leaving Brainerd to make their home in St. Paul, where the doctor has been appointed assistant city physician and will also be associated with Dr. Neher.

Dr. Prendergast has been a resident of Brainerd for the past two years, being associated during this time with Dr. R. A. Beise. He is a physician with many fine qualities and will be missed from the profession here. His friends wish him Godspeed and success in his new location.

Mrs. Prendergast was a favorite among the young people in Brainerd who regret that she is moving away. She preceded the doctor a few days in leaving for St. Paul to set her new home in order pending his arrival.

OBITUARY OF

MISS NITTERAUER

Born in Brainerd, Educated in Public Schools, Devoted Life to Music

HAD REMARKABLE TALENT

Was Considered One of Most Promising of Young Pianists of Chicago

Miss Gladys Nitterauer, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Nitterauer, was born October 29, 1896, in Brainerd.

She was educated in the public schools of the city and devoted her life to the one art, music, for which she had a remarkable talent, first studying with Mrs. W. A. M. Johnstone.

Later she spent five years in Louisville, Kentucky, studying piano and pipe organ. She afterward studied piano in the Minneapolis School of Music, and pipe organ in St. Paul.

She went to Chicago the latter part of August 1923, taking up piano and organ study and the teaching of piano.

It is hard to realize that her magic touch will be heard no more and that her pleasant smile and devoted loving ways are gone.

Miss Nitterauer was a devoted Christian, a member of the Methodist church and Sunday school. She was rejoicing in the expectation of soon becoming able to help her parents and planning for a future home together in Chicago, where she expected her future life work would be.

Theodore Troendle, under whom Miss Nitterauer last studied, has sent the Dispatch the following voluntary tribute to her pupil: "Though she had been studying music here in Chicago less than two years, she won an honorary scholarship at the Sherwood Music School, and was made a member of the faculty of that institution. She was considered one of the most promising of young pianists of Chicago, and her death will be keenly felt by her many friends and relatives."

The funeral was held from the Methodist church on Monday afternoon, Rev. E. A. Cooke officiating, and interment made in Evergreen. Relatives from out of town attending the services included Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Wold, Mrs. A. B. Rinehart, Mrs. A. Gustafson, Norris Wold, Mr. and Mrs. E. Axness, all of St. Paul.

Yearly Meeting

The Svenska Söndags Skola will hold its yearly meeting tomorrow evening (Wednesday) at the Clara Lutheran church. The usual business meeting is held from 7 to 8 o'clock after which a program will be rendered. Refreshments will be served after the program. The members of the society and their families are invited.

Oscar Forslund, Ironton. F. E. Foote, Crosby. E. A. Blake, Crosby. A. J. Halsted, Brainerd. Mrs. Hubert E. Scott, Brainerd. Clarence Heath, Jenkins.

Only a few cases have been filed with the clerk of the district court for trial at the May term, many wait until the last minute before filing their cases.

Those already filed include the cases of A. M. Johnson against F. M. Hall; Meyer D. Stern, trustee, against John P. Anderson, and W. E. Stoothoff against Anna Himrod.

In the case of A. M. Johnson against F. M. Hall, the plaintiff complains that the defendant is indebted to him in the sum of $82 for services rendered to the defendant as broker in the sale of real estate. Basil T. Heath is attorney for Mr. Johnson, and M. E. & C. A. Ryan for Mr. Hall.

In the case of Meyer D. Stern against John P. Anderson, Mr. Stern is acting as trustee for the U. S. L. Realty Co., and asks judgment against the defendant for $757.37 alleged to be due on a contract, together with interests, costs, etc.

Allen & Fletcher are attorneys for the plaintiff, and M. E. & C. A. Ryan are attorneys for Mr. Anderson.

In the case of W. E. Stoothoff against Anna Himrod, the plaintiff asks judgment against the defendant in the sum of $1,000 with interest, damages, alleging that he agreed to perform work for the plaintiff by mutual consent, and offered to perform this work, but was not allowed to perform it.

Basil T. Heath is attorney for Mr. Stoothoff, and M. E. & C. A. Ryan are attorneys for the defendant.

CITY ENTERTAINS RURAL TEACHERS

Crow Wing County Instructors in Brainerd Friday and Saturday

AT CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Excellent Programs Prepared by the Teachers, Pupils Taking Part

Brainerd is to entertain the rural teachers of Crow Wing county on Friday and Saturday of this week, when the Rural Teachers' association will hold its annual spring meeting in the parlors of the Chamber of Commerce. Some 70 instructors are expected to be in attendance, according to Mrs. Irma C. Hartley, county superintendent.

The meeting starts on Friday afternoon with an excellent program prepared by the teachers themselves and consisting in the main of numbers presented by children from the rural schools.

Contrary to custom, there will be no outside speakers at this meeting. In the past it has been the practice of the association to secure several prominent speakers, usually from the state department of education. This year the talent will be secured from the rural schools of the county.

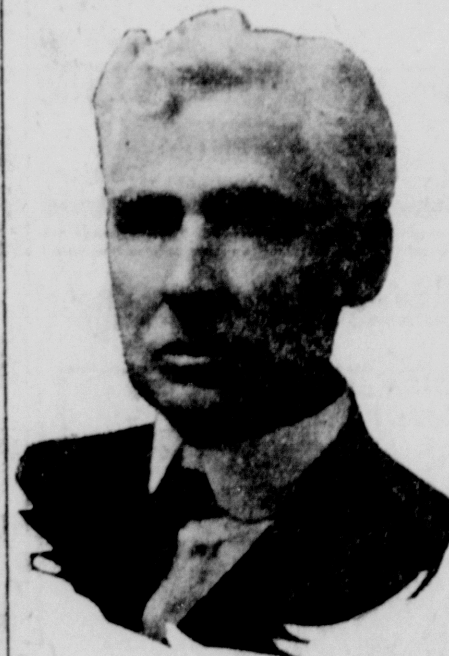

The annual business meeting of the association will be held on Saturday morning at which time officers for the coming year will be elected.

The spelling bee, an annual event with the association, will be staged on Saturday morning, following the business session. There will be a unique change in this spelling match this year, inasmuch as the teachers themselves will spell down instead of the children. Leon E. Lum is again offering his cash awards to the winners of the contest.

The teachers reading circle will be held on Saturday afternoon and will be the closing session of the two-day meet. The reading circle has been meeting at regular intervals throughout the past winter and has proven very interesting and instructive.

WINNING TITLE ON PAPER AND ON FIELD

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, March 31.—With the aid of a trusty pencil and the back of a pocket-worn envelope, Miller Huggins has won the 1935 American League pennant. The season, of course, will be played out, even if it is but the routine of vindicating the judgment of the little New York manager.

Huggins has it doped out by every elementary mathematics that the Yankees will win 163 games and they are enough to win the pennant in any man's league. Buck Harris and Ty Cobb will have to shake a lot of pencils to find 164 or 165 games.

As was to be expected from a manager of his great love of pitching, Huggins bases his hope for another pennant upon an all-star staff of pitchers. He expects Urban Shocker to win 22 games, Waite Hoyt 20, Herb Pennock 18, Bob Shawkey 15 and Walter Beall 10. Beall has the softest assignment of the staff, but Beall is a youngster just out of the International League and he may feel flattered that his manager has given him a tumble as a regular.

Looking over the list it does not seem that Huggins is expecting too much of his pitchers. Shocker, Hoyt and Pennock ought to deliver their quota, although Pennock is not in the best of condition. Sam Jones ought to do better than he did last year, because he always has been one of those pitchers who is good one year and not so good the next. He was not so good last season. Shawkey, removed from a regular turn and with the chance to work on clubs against which he is particularly effective, ought to win 15 games and young Beall ought to win 10 games, even if he loses a lot of the games that some one will have to lose.

The Yankees will jump away from the wire as the favorites, but not for the sole reason that their manager has filed the first official claim for the championship. The 1924 pennant race is still fresh enough in mind to recall that the New York Yankees were defeated principally by the New York Yankees, and that the Washington Senators won the pennant because the Yankees left the place vacant for them.

Physically the Yankees ought to be as good this year as they were last year and mentally they should be improved, unless they are so dumb under the hat that they didn't get the lesson handed out to them last year. If they didn't know it before, they should realize now that ordinary hustlers can beat the best team of loafers and any boy in the fourth grade ought to know that a game in April counts just as much in the final reckoning as a game in October.

"The Chorus Lady," James Forbes' is much loving and laughing, much famous play, has been made into an extremely good motion picture with Margaret Livingston in the title role. It is on view at the Lyceum Theatre, tonight and Wednesday, and if you like a fast moving and entertaining story of the stage and the race track, be sure this is on your list.

The story, which has for its heroine Patricia O'Brien, an Irish girl, is rich in sentiment and humor. There

*TOM-TUNNEY
BOUT IN N. Y.
NEARLY MADE

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
New York, March 31.—One of the few choice boxing attractions in prospect for the outdoor season may be arranged here soon.

Eddie Kane, manager of Tom Gibbons, arrived from Chicago and said he was going to sign Gibbons definitely for one match.

Kane has accepted tentatively an offer made by promoters of the Milk fund for a Gibbons-Wills fight in the Yankee stadium in June, but this match may never develop. Wills apparently doesn't want to fight anyone but Dempsey and he has waited so long that he may lose the opportunity for any kind of a profitable fight.

It would be no surprise to hear the announcement today that Gibbons and Gene Tunney, American light heavyweight champion, have signed articles to meet at the Polo Grounds in an early season bout.

Jimmy De Forest, matchmaker for the Polo Grounds Athletic club backed by Charley Stoneham, millionaire owner of the New York Giants, apparently got the jump on the other promoters.

It was reported that the papers had been signed and that Gibbons was to get 30 per cent of the receipts and that Tunney had accepted 20 per cent. De Forest estimated that the contest would draw at least $600,000.

Paddy Mullins, manager of Wills, said he would have nothing to say before the end of the week, and that by that time there may be nothing to say. Mullins says Wills will do nothing until they find out definitely what Dempsey is going to do this summer. Everyone but Paddy and Harry seem to know that Dempsey is not going to fight Wills.

The negro challenger probably will hold off promoters so long that the summer will slip along and he will be left out of the money again. He has wasted a million dollars' worth of time waiting on Dempsey and he is still waiting while other heavyweights are getting the dough.

TOM-TUNNEY
BOUT IN N. Y.
NEARLY MADEBy HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

New York, March 31.—One of the few choice boxing attractions in prospect for the outdoor season may be arranged here soon.

Eddie Kane, manager of Tom Gibbons, arrived from Chicago and said he was going to sign Gibbons definitely for one match.

Kane has accepted tentatively an offer made by promoters of the Milk fund for a Gibbons-Wills fight in the Yankee stadium in June, but this match may never develop. Wills apparently doesn't want to fight anyone but Dempsey and he has waited so long that he may lose the opportunity for any kind of a profitable fight.

It would be no surprise to hear the announcement today that Gibbons and Gene Tunney, American light heavyweight champion, have signed articles to meet at the Polo Grounds in an early season bout.

Jimmy De Forest, matchmaker for the Polo Grounds Athletic club backed by Charley Stoneham, millionaire owner of the New York Giants, apparently got the jump on the other promoters.

It was reported that the papers had been signed and that Gibbons was to get 30 per cent of the receipts and that Tunney had accepted 20 per cent. De Forest estimated that the contest would draw at least $600,000.

Paddy Mullins, manager of Wills, said he would have nothing to say before the end of the week, and that by that time there may be nothing to say. Mullins says Wills will do nothing until they find out definitely what Dempsey is going to do this summer. Everyone but Paddy and Harry seem to know that Dempsey is not going to fight Wills.

The negro challenger probably will hold off promoters so long that the summer will slip along and he will be left out of the money again. He has wasted a million dollars' worth of time waiting on Dempsey and he is still waiting while other heavyweights are getting the dough.

Scene from "The Chorus Lady"
PRODUCERS DISTRIBUTING CORPORATION

"The Chorus Lady," James Forbes' famous play, has been made into an extremely good motion picture with Margaret Livingston in the title role. It is on view at the Lyceum Theatre, tonight and Wednesday, and if you like a fast moving and entertaining story of the stage and the race track, be sure this is on your list.

The story, which has for its heroine Patricia O'Brien, an Irish girl, is rich in sentiment and humor. There is much loving and laughing, much anger and "showin' 'em not to get fresh with the Irish." The laugh follows fast on the heels of the tear. The action revolves for the most part about the Mallory stables, owned by Pat's sweetheart, with now and then a flash of the "Follies" and the bright lights of New York City. There is, among other things, an exciting horse race during which Pat risks her life to save a child.

Gloria Swanson and Ben Lyon in the Paramount Picture "Wages of Virtue"
An Allan Dwan Production.

"Wages of Virtue" will be shown at the New Park Theatre tonight and Wednesday
